PERSONAL STATEMENT

My professional life is built on three pillars, Namely:

- Teaching as a profession
- Providing leadership as a calling
- Serving communities as my social responsibility

I have a great passion for teaching and sharing information especially with students. I believe I am a role model in providing leadership to professionals through role modeling, mentoring and researching. I also believe that I have a responsibility to give back to my community by doing charitable work that will make at least one person better than he/she is today.

I am able to achieve all the above as a team player, able to work in a busy environment with little or no supervision, I am also a result oriented person
